

LICENSED FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Munro & Morris Funeral Homes Ltd. is seeking a Licensed Funeral Director to join our professional team in southeastern Ontario.

The ideal candidate will be career-oriented and have a genuine enthusiasm for the profession and a passion for customer service excellence. As an applicant you must demonstrate an aptitude for the embalmer's role as well as the maturity, social deportment and organizational skills of an arranger. The ability to communicate clearly and effectively, both verbally and in writing, is essential. Fluency in both English and French would be a significant asset.

You understand the demands and complexity of the profession and possess the capability and desire to contribute and thrive in a team role along with the confidence and responsibility to work independently when required. In addition, you hold a valid driver's license and a safe driving record and are comfortable with common workplace computer applications.

You are currently licensed - or eligible for licensing - as a Class 1 embalmer and funeral director in the province of Ontario and have at least one to two years of continuous funeral service experience.

We offer a competitive salary, commensurate with experience. Benefits include a comprehensive healthcare plan, group RRSP program, professional fees, and allowances for continuing education and clothing & dry-cleaning.

Munro & Morris Funeral Home Ltd. owns and operates five funeral home locations in southeastern Ontario, Wilson Funeral Homes in the City of Cornwall and Munro & Morris locations in the surrounding communities of Lancaster, Alexandria and Maxville. The privately-owned firm is the largest funeral services provider in the region, serving approximately 600 families each year.

The City of Cornwall and the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, home to a regional population of approximately 110,000, are situated on the St. Lawrence River, bordering both Quebec and New York State. Cornwall (www.cornwall.ca) boasts a full slate of modern amenities in a family-friendly and picturesque setting. The region, first settled by United Empire Loyalists – American colonists who sided with the King in the American Revolution – has a rich history and culture, a pleasant climate and easy access to both the natural beauty of rural Ontario and the world beyond. Situated on Ontario Route 401, it is just an hour from international airports in both Ottawa and Montreal.

If you are interested in advancing your funeral service career with an established private firm in a busy, productive environment, apply in confidence with your resume, a cover letter and references to: Meagan Lalonde, President & Managing Director - MeaganLalonde@gmail.com No calls please.

Visit us at:

www.munromorris.com

www.wilsonfuneralhome.ca